WORK EXPERIENCE

Reporting Intern

The Oxford Eagle

06/25–08/25

- Covered local news beats in Oxford, MS — city government, community affairs, and new business development — for the area's daily newspaper
- Built source relationships with local officials, residents, and business owners to produce original, community-focused reporting
- Wrote and filed clean, AP-style copy on daily deadlines for both print and digital publication
- Reported financial and business stories on emerging local enterprises, informing readers about economic developments across the Oxford community

Graduate Assistant – Marketing & Communications

University of Mississippi

05/25–05/26

- Produced 70+ AP Campus Insights video stories at the University of Mississippi, distributed nationally with content aired on TV stations across the U.S.
- Interviewed faculty and identified newsworthy angles in academic research, demonstrating editorial judgment and reporting initiative
- Managed the full production pipeline independently — reporting, shooting, scripting, and editing

Staff Reporter / De Facto Sports Editor

The Business Post

06/21–08/23

- Covered daily business and sports events, produced investigative stories, and edited page layouts for a major daily newspaper
- Elevated to de facto Sports Editor in September 2022, supervising reporters and managing daily section production
- Balanced reporting, editing, and page production independently across a high-volume daily cycle

Sub-Editor

New Age

08/23–07/24

- Reported on events and national issues for a major English-language daily; copy-edited field reports and contributed to editorial policy
- Designed daily section pages from incoming copy through to publication

Staff Reporter

NewsBangla24.com

10/20–06/21

- Reported, edited, and published daily news stories and multimedia content for a leading digital outlet on fast-moving deadlines

Sports Journalist

The Business Standard

05/19–10/20

- Helped build a newspaper's Sports section from scratch — reported, edited, designed pages, and produced video content

Communication Consultant

Article 19

12/23–03/24

- Advised a leading international freedom-of-expression NGO on communications content and strategy

Graduate Assistant

School of Journalism and New Media, University of Mississippi

08/24–05/25

- Conducted academic research and supported faculty at the School of Journalism and New Media, University of Mississippi
- Guided students on reporting, writing, and production while managing departmental scheduling and coordination

SELECTED WORK

- “No mental healthcare projects to treat sex workers” (The Business Post) — Investigative accountability report on the absence of mental-health services for sex workers in Bangladesh; sourced from sex workers, psychiatrists, government officials, and NGOs. Produced through a Thomson Reuters Foundation programme.
- “Under pressure, in the loop” (Long-form narrative feature) — Immersive narrative on the financial precarity and immigration anxiety of international students in the U.S., reported through extended access and multiple sourced interviews.
- “Fireworks galore in BPL: Fancy or futile?” (The Business Post) — Sports-accountability investigation costing out the Bangladesh Cricket Board's fireworks spending and its environmental and public-health impact, with expert and resident sourcing.
